

SODBUSTER

PORTER

Midnight black and smooth as silk, this robust porter is just the beer to get you through the long, dark winters. It pours an opaque black color and is topped with a creamy beige head. The aroma is full of rich coffee and dark chocolate notes with subtle toffee and smoke notes lurking in the background. The flavor is packed with rich dark chocolate, espresso, and faint wisps of smoke along with some caramel sweetness to support the roasted character. It is rich and full on the palate, providing you with the fortitude to make it through the North Dakota winters.
